

The Terrorist

Majdi Za'atri

Planned a suicide bombing and drove the suicide bomber to the targeted bus on Aug. 19, 2003. 23 people were murdered, including children, infants, and an 8-month pregnant woman.

Serving 23 life sentences in Israeli prison.

The Victims

Among the murdered:

The Reward

Under Palestinian Authority law, the PA pays Za'atri and thousands of other terrorists monthly salaries while they are in prison.

Total PA salary since Za'atri's arrest in October 2003 through December 2018:

$190,863

(661,800 shekels)

Current salary of 7,300 shekels/month will increase until reaching 12,300 shekels/month, according to the PA pay scale on the reverse side.

PA Law

Under Palestinian Authority law, the PA pays every terrorist prisoner a monthly salary and has budgeted $158 million (550 million shekels) in 2018 for terrorists' salaries.

Since 2000, the PA has raised the monthly salaries a number of times. Currently, every prisoner's salary starts at 1,400 shekels/month and increases every few years, reaching as high as 12,000 shekels/month after 30 years.

The following chart shows the monthly salaries in effect since January 2011.

Pay scale

Palestinian Authority Salaries to Terrorist Prisoners A prisoner's salary increases with prison time served

Source: PA Regulation No. 18, 2010 (Implemented January 2011, and still in effect)

For more information, see www.palwatch.org